

CACHE Level 2 Certificate in Playwork (CP-L2)
Unit Four – Legal Responsibilities for Playworkers

Multiple Choice Question Paper

Exemplar Paper 1

Read the following notes BEFORE you answer any questions

This question book remains the property of the council and is to be returned after the examination.

- In order to complete this examination paper you require:
this question book; an answer sheet; an HB pencil and a clean rubber.
- You MUST use an HB PENCIL to complete ALL parts of the answer sheet.
- Each question shows FOUR possible answers (lettered 'a', 'b', 'c' and 'd'). Only ONE is correct.
Decide which one is correct and mark your answer on the ANSWER SHEET with your HB pencil.

For example if you decide 'c' is correct, mark your answer like this

1	A
	B
	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> C
	D

If you want to change your answer, rub out your original response thoroughly, then fill in the box for your new answer.

- Any calculations or rough work can be done in this question book.
- Only entries on the answer sheet will be marked.
- Attempt all questions; if you find a question difficult, leave it and return to it later.
- If you have any queries ask the invigilator before you start.

This paper contains 25 questions.
Answer them using the 'boxes' numbered 1 to 25 on the answer sheet.
You have 45 minutes to complete the test.

Please turn over.../

1 Which legislation BEST supports the rights of traveller children and young people?

- a equalities legislation
- b safeguarding legislation
- c data protection legislation
- d health and safety legislation

2 An example of separate play provision is when children and young people

- a play in different rooms
- b play outside at different times
- c choose to meet together as a group
- d can attend for two days only each week

3 Policies and procedures in the play setting normally state

- a how work should be done
- b conditions of employment for staff
- c numbers of children and young people attending
- d names of staff who work with children and young people

4 When playwork settings follow data protection legislation

- a parents' contact details are written down
- b staff training records are regularly updated
- c children's medical details are always recorded
- d personal details of volunteers are stored securely

5 Children are building a den in front of an emergency exit. The playworker decides to intervene. This decision is based on

- a their own previous experiences
- b the ratio of staff to children and young people
- c a legal requirement to maintain safety
- d the number of children involved in the play

6 The MOST important reason for all new staff and volunteers to take part in an induction programme is to make sure that they

- a know when to take breaks
- b know how to fill out time sheets
- c meet the children and young people
- d can follow the policies and procedures

7 To help to protect children and young people, newly appointed playworkers MUST have

- a regular health checks
- b personal insurance cover
- c Criminal Records Bureau clearance
- d references from previous employers

8 If a hazard is ignored in the playsetting it is MOST likely to be

- a a risk
- b an injury
- c a challenge
- d a play opportunity

- 9 Several children are using hammers and saws. A child starts to wave a saw. What should the playworker do?
- a assess the risks
 - b observe the children
 - c stop the activity immediately
 - d shout to the child to be careful
- 10 The BEST way to help children to take responsibility and manage risk for themselves is by encouraging them to
- a play unsupervised
 - b carry out checks for hazards
 - c follow the health and safety rules
 - d choose challenging play resources
- 11 A group of children are baking potatoes on an open fire. Two children start to play chase around the fire. What should the playworker do FIRST?
- a put out the fire
 - b let the children play freely
 - c tell the children to sit down
 - d remind the children about safety
- 12 The situation MOST likely to require an emergency response from the playworker is a cut caused by
- a scissors
 - b a craft knife
 - c handling paper
 - d buttering bread
- 13 A child in a play setting may need assistance with personal intimate care
- a after messy play
 - b when incontinent
 - c after handling animals
 - d before snack and meal times
- 14 How can a playworker BEST support children and young people's health and welfare?
- a attend a health and safety course
 - b value and respect their opinions
 - c respond to their individual needs
 - d arrange regular outings to a local play area
- 15 What can the playworker do to help children and young people protect themselves from abuse?
- a tell parents about the setting's child protection policy
 - b recognise the importance of the child / parent relationship
 - c encourage children and young people to talk about themselves
 - d help children and young people to understand they have rights
- 16 A young person is excluded from play by the rest of the group because of bad breath. What should the playworker do FIRST?
- a offer support to the young person
 - b get advice from a senior playworker
 - c talk to the other young people in the group
 - d discuss the young person's welfare at the next team meeting
- 17 Playworkers can protect themselves from allegations of unprofessional practice by
- a wearing smart clothes for work
 - b following the safe practice code
 - c joining in children's risky play activities
 - d asking senior playworker about health and safety

18 If a young person asks a playworker for money, the playworker should refer to the

- a ground rules
- b safe practice code
- c Health and Safety policy
- d conditions of employment

19 In a play setting children and young people are MOST at risk of bullying from

- a parents
- b each other
- c playworkers
- d using the internet

20 A child who sees abuse at home is MOST at risk of

- a neglect
- b bullying
- c grooming
- d emotional abuse

21 To avoid being harmed, children who are using the internet should

- a sit correctly
- b take regular breaks
- c learn how to send emails
- d protect their personal details

22 To safeguard children, playworkers have a duty to disclose child protection concerns. They need to be able to identify

- a families' cultural wishes
- b children's medical needs
- c signs and indicators of abuse
- d common childhood illnesses

23 What is the BEST way for a playworker to identify children or young people who may be experiencing sexual abuse?

- a display posters about child protection
- b find out information about families
- c understand possible signs of abuse
- d encourage them to talk to adults at the setting

24 A sign that a playworker may observe in a young person who is being neglected is

- a wearing old clothes
- b preferring to play alone
- c going home unaccompanied
- d stealing food from the kitchen

25 When sharing concerns about children and young people with other agencies, playworkers MUST

- a ensure information is accurate
- b keep some information confidential
- c disclose all information when asked
- d give an opinion about the child or young person

THE END