

Free CACHE QCF Forums

Dear Colleague,

CACHE has been running a series of Customer Forums to keep our customers informed of the forthcoming changes to the Qualifications and Credit Framework (QCF) and Foundation Learning (FL).

Due to the popular demand of these events, we're pleased to announce additional dates and locations of forums taking place in the spring term:

Date	City	Forum Code
22nd January 2010	Manchester	CF008
29th January 2010	Central London	CF009
5th February 2010	Birmingham	CF010
12th February 2010	Cardiff	CF011
19th February 2010	HALF TERM
26th February 2010	Bromley (Kent)	CF012
5th March 2010	Newcastle	CF013
12th March 2010	Aylesbury	CF014
19th March 2010	Bristol	CF015

To make sure all our centres have the opportunity to attend a Forum and to be as fair as possible, we would like to invite one person from your Centre to attend an event. Places are limited and will be offered on a first come first serve basis. (These events are free of charge).

These events provide a great opportunity to share your thoughts and ideas with us and with other CACHE centres. We will also have an e|ngage surgery where CACHE staff will be available to demonstrate our online facility. Pastries will be available on arrival at 10.30 for an 11.00 start, lunch will be provided and we will aim to finish at 15.00.

If you would like to attend, please RSVP to feedbackforums@cache.org.uk indicating the following:
